Group members:

Your job is to write a script for the rest of the story – How are they going to get Ostrich to fly? What are your ideas? As a group, come up with an idea.

You will then be developing a script for your puppets to explain your idea to the audience. As you are finishing the script, make sure all puppets have a chance to talk. Don't forget to include the character speaking followed by a colon, then their dialogue. Don't forget to include stage directions if needed.

Example:

Penguin: I'm sure if we put our heads together, we can come up with something.

(all birds gather and put heads together)

(all 4 birds should be on puppet stage)

Teacher: Now what are we going to do? How are we going to be able to get Ostrich to fly!

Penguin: I'm sure if we put our heads together we can come up with something.

(all birds gather and put heads together)

(turn this page over)

(All characters take a bow! Then come out front and introduce)
