Serve at the Tempe Public Library, Experience Corps Reading Tutoring Program, as a member of the city's Crisis Response Team, in a city office and more! You'll not only be serving your community, you'll be learning more about it! The City of Tempe Municipal Volunteer Program places volunteers in city government offices, facilities and programs. Volunteers complement and assist city staff, and expand and enhance the services offered to the community. Committed and one-time opportunities exist for teens and adults, individuals and groups. Call 480-350-5190, or visit our website at www.tempe.gov/volunteer to find-out how you can get involved.

Teen Summer Volunteer Program
It's not too early to be thinking about what to do this summer. Middle school, high school and even college students may serve as volunteers for the City of Tempe in a variety of programs during June and July. Opportunities exist at the Tempe Public Library, Tempe History Museum, Petersen House Museum, city swimming pools, in children's programs and more.

Positions are limited and fill quickly. Information and applications are available April 1. Call now to get your name on the mailing list - 480-350-5190.

Have fun and help kids!
Coaches are welcomed for boys and girls youth basketball and flag football, grades 4 to 8. Games are played on Saturdays, March through May. For more information, contact Keyon Cornejo at 480-350-5222.
