WELCOME

✧ TO THE MONTHLY MEETING OF THE ✧ TEMPE HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION

The Tempe Historic Preservation Commission meets at 6:00 p.m. on the second Thursday of the month at Hatton Hall, 34 East 7th Street. The Historic Preservation Office prepares an agenda with supporting material for Historic Preservation Commission meetings. State law requires that commission agendas be publicly posted at least 24 hours prior to a meeting; however, Historic Preservation Commission agendas are usually available the Monday before the Thursday meeting. You can find Historic Preservation Commission agendas in the following locations: the City Clerk's Office on the 2nd floor of City Hall, the Historic Preservation Office on the 2nd floor of the Orchid House, the bulletin board on the Garden Level outside of the City Council Chambers, and on the internet at <http://www.tempe.gov/historicpres>.

Historic Preservation Commission monthly meetings are recorded on audio tape. Proceedings of the meetings are maintained by the Historic Preservation Office. Meeting minutes are transcribed from the proceedings, approved by the commission, accepted by City Council, and maintained as the permanent public record by the City Clerk's Office. The public is welcome to review public records at the City Clerk's Office any time during normal business hours. Agendas and minutes are also available on the internet from the Tempe Preservation website at <http://www.tempe.gov/historicpres/Agendas+Minutes.html>. To purchase a hard copy of the Historic Preservation Commission meeting minutes, please call the Clerk at (480) 350-8241.

The Tempe Historic Preservation Commission is created to advise Tempe City Council on matters concerning historic preservation. The commission believes that providing citizens with opportunities to communicate comments and concerns is vital for an informed commission and a representative local government. There are many ways to reach the Historic Preservation Commission during public meetings and at other times as well.

Members of the public may come forward and talk with the commission during the "Call to the Audience" at the beginning of each monthly meeting. Arizona Open Meeting Law limits commission discussion to matters listed on the posted agenda, however, you may request that an item be placed on the agenda for discussion at an upcoming commission meeting. Persons who address the commission during the call to the audience, are asked to provide their name and zip code on a comment card available at the meeting.

Citizens who know in advance that they want to address the commission on a specific issue can have the issue placed on the agenda for discussion as a Scheduled Public Appearance by calling the Historic Preservation Office at (480) 350-8870 no later than the Friday morning before the Thursday meeting.

Citizens can also contact the Historic Preservation Office to communicate with commission members. The Tempe Preservation website is the commission's primary public outreach facility. From the site at <http://www.tempe.gov/historicpres/> you will find the most up to date information on Tempe Preservation including: announcements of meetings and events, agendas and minutes, along with additional contact information. For more information on Historic Preservation contact Hansen, Interim Tempe Historic Preservation Officer at 480.350.8763 or by email sent to hansen1@tempe.gov.
