MOTION: Carmen Gammage motioned to approve the minutes.
SECOND: Kimberly Trudgen seconded the motion.
DECISION: Minutes were approved.

Agenda Item 2 – Treasurer's Report
Caitlin Long provided the treasurer's report.

Agenda Item 3- Announcements

- 1) Kim Bauman announced that Mayor Hallman is scheduled to attend the January 15, 2008 MYAC meeting.
- 2) Allie Gorton announced that Kimberly and she will be presenting the 2007 Youth Town Hall Report to the Mayor and City Council this Thursday. MYAC members are welcome to attend the Issue Review Session which begins at 6 p.m. Copies of the report were distributed to MYAC members.

Agenda Item 4 – Student Government Day Planning

- 1) Corie Owens had MYAC members break into their Student Government Day committees, and continue event planning. Members then reconvened and provided the following update:
- Caitlin Long, Food Committee Chairperson reported they have finalized all of their event responsibilities and are working with the registration committee on developing school announcement for student recruitment.
 - Leslie Klein, Registration Committee Chairperson reported that participant applications will be sent to the schools on November 13th and the deadline date for students to return their applications will be December 13th. MYAC members were in consensus that they would like to hold an option meeting on December 18th to assign students to career shadowing positions. The following MYAC members will follow-up with recruitment efforts at their schools: Sachin Nair – McClintock; Krystal Thacker – Tempe High; Jimmy Funk-Marcos, Amanda Lovins-Compadre; and Kimberly Tudgen-Corona.
 - Veekas Shrivastava, Program Committee reported they revised the event evaluation to make it more relevant to teens. They also focused on developing lunchtime activities. In addition to having a Tempe trivia contest they propose creating paper placemats that have a Tempe trivia crossword puzzle on it. MYAC members agreed this was a great idea.

Agenda Item 5- Possible Community Service Project

Due to time constraints this agenda item was tabled until the next meeting.
