A Cosmic Apostrophe Punctuates a Digital Universe by Andrew Salomone

In the age of email, text messaging, iPod, You Tube and camera phones, the world has vastly changed the way in which information is received and sent. Artists Fausto Hernandez, Noah Nipperus and Andrew Salomone, all of Tempe; Lou Oates and Ignacio Farias, both of Mesa; Tourya Othman, of Scottsdale; and Ryan Huna Smith, of Tucson, use new technologies to explore the fast-paced digital age.
