

Young Artists Studio

Summer 2002
Lower Level Gallery

Students enrolled in the city of Tempe's Young Artists Studio summer program display their art in two different exhibitions at the Tempe Public Library. Artwork is inspired by well-known or master artists. Students create with fiber, mixed media, painting, printing and three-dimensional media. Student artists also are actively involved in the exhibit installations.

