Examples of Duties:

This class specification is intended to indicate the basic nature of positions allocated to the class and examples of typical duties that may be assigned. It does not imply that all positions within the class perform all of the duties listed, nor does it necessarily list all possible duties that may be assigned.

Duties may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Evaluate Emergency Medical Services (EMS) data; identify methods of effective emergency medical care; identify methods to correct complex medical issues and patient care delivery situations; design quality assurance programs to measure program outcome and effectiveness; and develop SOP's, educational and operational programs, and make other medical recommendations.
- Conduct research and analysis of current and future EMS issues and trends to ensure the Fire Department's medical services reflect the most current technology and service delivery alternatives.
- Recommend and assist the Deputy Chief assigned to EMS in the implementation of goals and objectives for EMS programs, projects and systems; establish schedules and methods for EMS operations; assist in the implementation of policies, procedures, programs, methods and systems as appropriate.
- Serve as a liaison between the Fire Department and hospitals, medical direction authorities, ambulance supervisors, and other outside agencies regarding EMS activities, procedures, and policies.
- Conduct EMS training activities and classroom instruction sessions including Basic Life Support (BLS), Advanced Cardiac Life Support (ACLS), Pediatric Advanced Life Support (PALS), CPR, and/or Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) programs.
- Communicate with Fire personnel, citizens, and other customers in identifying and resolving EMS issues.
- Perform ride-alongs with emergency vehicles during emergency calls to evaluate EMS services under emergency scene conditions.
- Assist in the preparation of comprehensive EMS budget documents; assist in the preparation and administration of the EMS annual budget; prepare cost estimates for EMS budget recommendations and submit justifications for EMS budget items; and monitor EMS budget expenditures and assist in the budget control.
- Prepare and staff public information displays, health fairs, and other related events.
- Perform other related duties as assigned.
