

Situational Judgment/Writing Ability Test (SJWAT) Candidate Orientation Guide Order Form

The entry-level Police Officer written test consists of two sub-tests designed to measure critical constructs required for successful job performance as a Police Officer. You do not need previous police experience to pass the written test. Each construct measured by this test has been carefully linked to an entry-level police officer job description and identified as a critical skill or ability necessary for performance of the job.

The constructs measured by the entry-level written test will include:

- Writing Ability—to include: correct wording, grammar, spelling, punctuation as well as ease of understanding.
- Situational Judgment/Human Relations—to include: ability to work under stressful conditions, integrity, ethics, decision-making, self-control, the ability to maintain confidentiality, interpersonal skills, teamwork, ability to follow rules, demonstrating respect for others.

We have created a paper-and-pencil Candidate Orientation Guide* that contains 35 questions similar to those in the actual test. The answer key for the SJWAT Candidate Orientation Guide is also included.
