The Neighborhood

Esmeralda Delaney

Concrete irrigation standpipe base covered with handmade tiles and mosaic tiles

2010

Location: University Heights Neighborhood
Orange Street, east of Una Avenue

Artist Website: www.azopenstudio.com

Description: The Neighborhood was influenced by the artist's views of what makes a neighborhood: the people and pets who live there. The artist incorporated different characters in their homes, as well as many cats and dogs. The artist hopes that individuals relate to this piece and maybe even see themselves pictured in it.

Artist biography: Delaney currently teaches art at Glendale Community College. Previously, she was a professor at Grand Canyon University for 21 years. Her passion is working with clay, mosaics and mixed media art. Delaney has been an exhibiting artist in the Phoenix area for more than 40 years.

Funding: This project was funded through the city of Tempe Maryanne Corder Neighborhood Grant Program. www.tempe.gov/neighborhoods
