Tempe Center for the Arts

The best intimate arts experience is at Tempe Center for the Arts. Find out for yourself at Tempe Songwriters' Showcase, which blends the best of Tempe's musicians with world-renowned music legends, such as Francine Reed. The showcase airs statewide on KAET, PBS channel 8. Jerry Riopelle is the featured artist for the May 17 show. Get tickets at www.tempe.gov/tcaevents.

Support local musicians at Walk-In Wednesdays Open Mic Night. From 5 – 10 p.m. through the end of May, listen to amazing talent sharing both original music and covers. Bring friends for an evening of refreshments, music and the best view in the Valley. No cover charge. www.tempe.gov/tca

Start a Green Revolution at the Gallery at TCA. The gallery is a 3,500 square-foot visual arts space with work by local as well as internationally acclaimed artists. Exhibiting through May 25 is Green Revolution, art that is meant to inspire you to take better care of our world. www.tempe.gov/tcagreen

Tempe History Museum

Learn about our community's past and future at the Tempe History Museum. Explore the kids' area and the new exhibits. Join your neighbors each Third Thursday for coffee and a presentation by speakers who connect the history of Tempe to the present. Mayor Mark Mitchell offers his look to the future for Tempe at 7 p.m. on May 16. It's free.

Performances at the Museum also offer live music and art by the groups that make Tempe culturally interesting, May 4 brings music by The Senators. Past events have brought Appalachian music, brass bands, and even chamber quartets playing Lady Gaga. Check www.tempe.gov/museum for the latest opportunity.

Tempe Public Library

Learn how to use your new tablet, research your family history, create interesting crafts, take an Osher continuing education class or discuss classic films throughout the month. Or relax with a cup of tea in the Connections Café and chat with new friends. On Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Saturdays, bring your children to storytime and let them wonder as books come alive.

Your library is a place discover, enrich, enjoy and connect. Best of all, the programs are free. www.tempe.gov/library for details.
