Special Concert on December 4th

The Original Tremble Clefs, a singing group of people with Parkinson's Disease, presents a holiday concert at Pyle on December 4th. The Tremble Clefs is a nationwide music therapy program for people with Parkinson's disease, an incurable degenerative neuromuscular condition. Singing helps us communicate and connect with the world. The physical benefits are improved voice, rhythm, movement, breathing, posture, facial expression and memory. The social and emotional benefits derive from being part of a community that celebrates these accomplishments.

Please join us for holiday music and light refreshments!
