

Tempe Public Library welcomes author:

Virgil Alexander

Thursday, June 12

6:30 - 7:30 pm

Library Meeting Room B

Local author Virgil Alexander will present and do a book signing of his new book Saints and Sinners, involving the rural cop characters from his previously published book The Wham Curse.

Arizona deputies Bren Allred and Manny Sanchez and Tribal Policeman Al Victor are drawn into intrigue and murder when a charismatic Mexican girl is smuggled for witness protection into the Gila Valley by the Mexican police.

Virgil Alexander was born in the rural area between Globe and Miami, Arizona. He attended Miami schools and grew up raising livestock and enjoying riding, hunting, fishing, camping, and reading. His family was heavily involved in the Gila County Sheriff's office and local and state police departments. He taught for Gila Pueblo College at the Globe, Miami, San Carlos, and State Prison Campus and learning centers. An Arizona historian, Alexander's writing includes history and natural history of the settings.

