

Eco-Friendly

April 10-Sept. 2, 2009

Eco Friendly focuses on artworks made from recycled materials and/or contains ecological subject matter. The theme, "Eco Friendly" sparks hot discussion and seems to have a variety of connotations depending on the person or situation

Artists

Rebecca Davis and Roger Asay, Prescott Davis and Asay are a husband and wife team that creates pieces that attempt "to bring viewers into direct, intense contact with the raw materials of nature so that they can come to see themselves as part of the seamless continuity of the natural world." Davis received a bachelor's degree in anthropology from the University of New Mexico and Asay received a master's of fine arts degree in painting from the University of California-Berkeley. Some of their large scale public art pieces are located at Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport and Phelps Dodge Tower in Phoenix.

Roger Asay

Craig Cheply, Tempe

Cheply's work emphasizes political and ecological issues that face Arizona residents today, including drought and pollution. He is both a commercial and fine artist who is known for his photo-realistic painting and large scale murals which are featured locally at Chase Field and the Arizona National History Museum.

Applewood Series construction, Rebecca Davis

100% Natural #2 by Craig Cheply

Exhibitions at the United States Post Office highlight local artists working in a variety of media and themes. Space is located in the heart of the Mill Avenue district. Special emphasis is placed on work that is fun, eye-catching and unusual.