Directors' Thoughts

Kathy Husser
Deputy Community Services Director -
Library Services

Hello and welcome to summer, 2017 at the Tempe Public Library. Our programming teams in adult and youth services along with our outreach department, spends many hours coordinating programs not only at the library but at our city's community centers. These programs serve up some great FREE events to keep you, the kids, or visiting family involved (and cool) this summer.

Be sure to sign up for this year's summer reading program, entitled Build a Better World. You can earn a free book of your choosing and be eligible for some great family-friendly drawing prizes along the way. Everything from urban farming to storytime with Mayor Mitchell is available free to your family here at the library this summer.

Check out the online library calendar for dates and times, and remember some classes might need you to register. Being an avid Library user my whole life, I encourage you to take advantage of Tempe Public Library's many great resources in addition to programs, such as free E-books and magazines as well as free streaming movies delivered right to your device beginning this summer with the new Hoopla app!

We are here to help you enjoy this summer and have fun learning along the way!

Library Writer in Residence

Take your writing to the next level with the Library's Writer in Residence!

The library is hosting New York Times bestselling author Melissa Marr as a Writer in Residence June-August. Melissa will be onsite to write and provide instruction to aspiring authors. Get expert advice on your writing by registering for a one-on-one consultation, or attend one of her writing workshops to learn new skills in the craft of writing and publishing. All experience levels are welcome. Come meet our Writer in Residence and get on your way to having your own book on our shelves!

To see the full details of the Writers in Residence project, one-on-one consultation registration and dates available, please visit: www.tempe.gov/TempeWrites

Melissa Marr is an award-winning author best known for her internationally bestselling Wicked Lovely series and her children's Norse mythology series, The Blackwell Pages. Additionally, she is the author of several adult novels, a manga series, a picture book, Bunny Roo, several romances, and a thriller, as well as co-editor of several fantasy anthologies. Her first board book released in January 2017, and her upcoming releases include two more picture books (2018 and 2019) and two essays in charity anthologies for mental health issues. Unlike many authors, Melissa straddles multiple genres.

The Bones of Fiction: Novel Writing 101

New York Times bestselling Writer in Residence Melissa Marr breaks down the steps of writing a novel - world building, character, and plotting. In this fun and practical session, she will share the tricks and secrets of getting the story on the page, from creating a sense of space to building your world's entire infrastructure.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 7, 6:30-7:30 PM, MEETING RM A

Point of View and Narrative Structure

Few things are as complicated as point of view and narrative structure. Join author Melissa Marr as we make sense of the ways you can structure your novel, the pitfalls of each option, and the benefits of each option.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 28, 6-7 PM, MEETING ROOM A

How Publishing Works: From Agent through Publication Day

Join author Melissa Marr as she covers the 101 on publishing. Unlike many authors, Melissa has successfully published commercial novels for adults and children, picture books, and short fiction anthologies. Let her demystify the process for you in this "no question too far" session.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 26, 6:30-7:30 PM, MEETING RM A

Action in Fiction

Novels need action, but that action should be a logical part of the story. Join Writer in Residence Melissa Marr as she covers some basic weapons (synthetic longsword, steel longsword, synthetic German Messer, and staff) and how to incorporate them into your fiction.

SUNDAY JULY 30, 1:30-2:30 PM, MEETING ROOM A

Writing for Children: From Picturebooks To Teen Novels

Join Writer in Residence Melissa Marr as she covers the 101 on writing for young readers. Melissa has successfully published commercial novels for children and picture books (all with major NY houses).

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 16, 6:30-7:30 PM, MTG RM A

Building Believable Characters: Beyond Dithering Damsels and Monologuing Villains

Join author Melissa Marr to tackle ways to make your antagonists do more than cackle and monologue. In this session, we'll cover tactics for creating realistic characters, walking the fine line between monstrous and redeemable, and why the cast of characters needs to be complex.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 30, 6:30-7:30 PM MTG RM A
