Art With a Cause

Tempe Historical Museum and Xico, Inc. Nov. 5, 2007 - April 4, 2008

Artists often support cultural and political causes. Exhibited are many posters from the Royal Chicano Air Force that announced dances, strikes, boycotts, and traditional ceremonies in support of Cesar Chavez and the United Farm Workers.

This exhibit also presents the saga of Cesar Chavez in Arizona: from his protest fast in 1972 to his honorary degree from ASU in 1992.

Also featured are samples from contemporary, local Hispanic printmakers.

Exhibitions at the United States Post Office highlight local artists working in a variety of media and themes. Space is located in the heart of the Mill Avenue district. Special emphasis is placed on work that is fun, eyecatching and unusual.
