We all know our own culture and lifestyle, but do you know your neighbors'?

TOPIC: "Native American Culture"

WHEN/WHERE: Wednesday, November 15th, 2006
Tempe City Hall, 31 E. 5th Street
Council Chambers, Garden Level
12pm -1pm.

PURPOSE: To create a greater understanding of each other in an effort to eliminate biases and build community.

With the Thanksgiving holiday right around the corner, now is the perfect opportunity to gather together and learn about our very first neighbors -- the Native Americans. The speaker for this program will be Eunice Zephier, Educational Program Specialist at Cook School for Christian Leadership. Eunice will share her knowledge on the Navajo culture, while Tony White Thunder, a student and employee at the college will perform cultural Sioux dances with live music by Preying Eagle Drum Group.
