

Career Inquiry

We all ask questions. Whenever there are decisions to make, inquiry helps us examine a situation, gather relevant information and consider evidence as a basis on which to draw our conclusions.

Draw a line from each career on the left to a question on the right that someone in that career might ask.

Career

Questions

Doctor

Can you describe the clothes the thief was wearing?

Engineer

How can I help the actor express this emotion?

Coach

Why is the population of songbirds decreasing on the prairies?

Historian

How much steel is needed to build a bridge strong enough for rush hour traffic?

Restaurant Owner

How did World War II change the lives of women in the United States?

Biologist

Where does your shoulder hurt?

Car Salesperson

How many tables can I set up in the dining room?

English Teacher

How long can I let my star player rest on the bench?

Movie Director

Does your family enjoy road trips?

Police Detective

Which story would my students enjoy reading?