Working groups shall adopt the principles of the Tempe Involving the Public (TIP) Manual and hold a minimum of one stakeholder meeting and one public input meeting, unless more public input is directed by the Council. In addition to these two meetings, the Tempe Forum could also be used to collect input from residents and stakeholders.

RULE 8. PRESIDING OFFICER

The presiding officer shall preserve decorum and decide all questions of order, subject to appeal to the City Council.

1. During City Council meetings, Councilmembers shall preserve order and decorum and shall not delay or interrupt the proceedings or refuse to obey the orders of the presiding officer or the Rules of the City Council. Every Councilmember desiring to speak shall address the Chair, upon recognition by the presiding officer shall confine all comments to the question under debate, and shall avoid all personalities and indecorous language. Once recognized, a Councilmember shall not be interrupted while speaking unless called to order by the presiding officer or unless a point of order is raised by another Councilmember. If a Councilmember is called to order while speaking, the Councilmember shall immediately cease speaking until the question of order is determined. If ruled to be in order, the Councilmember shall be permitted to proceed. If ruled to be not in order, the Councilmember shall remain silent or shall alter all remarks so as to comply with the rules of the City Council. If the presiding officer fails to act, any Councilmember may move to require the presiding officer to enforce the rules, and the affirmative vote of the majority of the City Council shall require the presiding officer to act.
2. The presiding officer shall have the authority to preserve decorum in meetings. Any remarks shall be addressed to the Chair and to any or all Councilmembers. Without permission from the presiding officer, no staff member, other than the staff member who has the floor, shall enter into any discussion, either directly or indirectly.

Unauthorized remarks from the audience, stomping of feet, whistles, yells, or similar demonstrations shall not be permitted by the presiding officer, who shall direct the removal of such offenders from the room. Should the presiding officer fail to act, any member of the City Council may move to require the presiding officer to enforce the rules, and the affirmative vote of the majority of the City Council shall require the presiding officer to act. Any members of the public desiring to address the City Council shall be recognized by the Chair, shall state their name and city of residence in an audible tone for the record, and shall limit their remarks to the questions under discussion.
