DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

The Management Assistant I/II+ is distinguished from the Executive Assistant by the greater complexity, depth, and scope of professional-level assignments for Management Assistant I/II+ positions. Additionally, positions classified at the Management Assistant I/II+ level are characterized by a relative absence of office administration and administrative support/coordination work, which is often found in positions classified as Executive Assistant.

This is the full journey level class within the Management Assistant series. Employees within this class are distinguished from the Management Assistant I+ by the performance of the full range of duties as assigned including reviewing materials, research and assembly of factual information and reviewing and transmitting management decisions. Employees at this level receive only occasional instruction or assistance as new or unusual situations arise, and are fully aware of the operating procedures and policies of the work unit. Positions in this class are flexibly staffed and are normally filled by advancement from the lower class of Management Assistant I+ after two years of professional Management Assistant experience, or, when filled from the outside, require prior professional Management Assistant experience, preferably in a public agency. Appointment to the higher class requires that the employee be performing the full range of duties assigned to the class.
