

What if I miss a Campaign Finance filing deadline?

All committees are liable for a late penalty of $10.00 for each day that a campaign finance report is filed late. After 15 days, the penalty increases to $25.00 per day. Penalties accrue until the report is filed.

How do I know if someone who has contributed to my campaign is a registered lobbyist?

To determine if a contributor is a registered lobbyist with the City of Tempe, candidate committees may use the City of Tempe Lobbyist eFiling System, which is online at <https://lobbyist.tempe.gov>.

I have questions about running for election. Who may I contact to help me?

The City Clerk's Office is able to answer procedural questions, such as filing dates and deadlines, and which forms to use. The City Clerk's Office and City of Tempe staff are unable to provide legal, financial, or any other professional advice to candidates or candidate committees.

This information is provided as a courtesy by the Tempe City Clerk's Office and is current at the time of its release. It is intended to assist in meeting the requirements for candidacy; however, it is the candidate's responsibility to ensure that all legal requirements have been met. The City Clerk's Office cannot render legal, financial or other professional advice.

- a resident of the City of Tempe or an annexed area for at least two years immediately preceding the election

When will candidate information and forms be available?

Complete candidate packets will be made available in summer, 2019, online at www.tempe.gov/election, and in hardcopy upon request in the City Clerk's Office, 31 E. Fifth Street, Tempe, Arizona. Individuals who have filed a Candidate Committee Statement of Organization for the 2020 election cycle or who have inquired about the 2020 Elections with the City Clerk's Office will be notified by email once the complete candidate packets are available.

Is it ok if I circulate nomination petitions before the candidate packets are released?

The City Clerk's Office understands that individuals may want to begin gathering signatures before the candidate packets are available. Packets are released in summer in order to incorporate changes that are made during the current legislative session. Candidates who obtain nomination petitions elsewhere and circulate them do so at their own risk, as laws may change. The validity of nomination petitions may be challenged in court by an elector

Where can I find information on Candidate Committees and Campaign Finance?

- Arizona Revised Statutes § 16-901 et seq.
- Tempe City Charter and City Code, <https://library.municode.com/az/tempe>
- Through the Arizona Secretary of State's Website, in the Campaign Finance Handbook for Candidate Committees: <https://azsos.gov/elections/campaign-finance-reporting>

What are the current campaign contribution limits?

The City of Tempe established candidate contribution limits. The limits are available on the City's website, www.tempe.gov/election. Candidates are advised to seek their own legal advice concerning the limitations on and use of campaign contributions; the City Clerk's Office cannot render legal, financial, or other professional advice.

What type of Candidate Committee/Campaign Finance forms do I need to file?

To register a new candidate committee, file a Statement of Organization within 10 days after qualifying as a candidate committee. A candidate qualifies as a Candidate Committee if the candidate receives contributions or makes expenditures, in any combination, of at least $500 in connection with that candidacy.

Campaign finance reports must be filed in accordance with campaign finance laws as long as the candidate committee is active. All committees are subject to late filing penalties. Once a Committee Termination Statement is filed, campaign finance reports are no longer required to be filed.

All campaign finance filings are made in the Campaign Finance eFiling System, at <https://campaignfinance.tempe.gov>.

What do I need to do if any of the information on my Statement of Organization changes?

Committees shall file an Amended Statement of Organization within ten days after any change in committee information.
