

The City of Tempe Adapted Recreation Presents

LEAP Program

Life Skills Enrichment After School Program

What is the LEAP Program?

LEAP is an after school program for Middle School and High School students based in Tempe Schools with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities. Our program focuses on Recreation, Life Skills, arts and crafts and other interactive programs. All participants need to be successful at a 1:4 ratio with no exceptions.

What is the LEAP Program schedule?

LEAP follows the Tempe Unified District High School schedules.

Our program is Monday– Friday from 1:00pm-6:00pm allowing us time to support early releases at the Middle and High School levels.

Where is the LEAP Program?

LEAP is housed at the Westside Multi-Generational Center.

715 W 5th St, Tempe, AZ 85281

Crossroads: Roosevelt and 5th Street

How do I pay for the LEAP Program?

One Way: DDD/DES referral from Division of Developmental Disabilities is accepted (DTT hours)

Second Way: Out of pocket: $10/day or $45/week

*THIS IS A CHANGE FROM PAST AMOUNTS

What is the Registration Process for the LEAP Program?

1. Contact Samantha Mason
Samantha_mason@tempe.gov // 480.858.2469
2. Complete all paperwork and schedule a 1:1 interview with Samantha Mason
3. If you are intending to use DDD services, contact your DDD Support Coordinator to request approval for DTT (Day Treatment & Training) hours or to ensure approval would not be an issue. If approved, your Support Coordinator should provide you with a copy of a "Changes in the ISP" document that is to be signed by the student's parent/guardian and Samantha Mason (once approved by Samantha Mason to be registered into LEAP).
4. Once approved to attend the LEAP program and when approval of DDD services has been verified, the student's parent/guardian will need to submit official transportation request documentation to the proper school official. This is provided by the school, not by City of Tempe Adapted Recreation. If you are unsure of who to contact I would recommend contacting your child's teacher or the Special Education Department Chair at your child's school.
